 125-115cm: New snow 12/23
 20-0cm: Sintering

Notes: This area did not receive as much early season snow and is absent of melt freeze crust sandwiches, unlike the cottonwoods. The new snow that fell 12/23 measured about 4 inches, but drifted up to a foot in spots. Small localized cracking around the foot in shallower drifts but appeared to be fairly non-reactive.
